

CDC director to keynote ACE08

Wednesday, May 14, 2008

DENVER — Dr. Julie Gerberding, director of the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), will be the keynote speaker at the Opening General Session of the American Water Works Association (AWWA) ACE08 event, according to the AWWA, based here.

ACE08 will take place June 8-12 at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta. The Opening General Session is scheduled for 9 a.m. on June 9.

Gerberding's talk will address work being conducted at CDC, including its role in waterborne disease prevention. Gerberding also will address the ways that the drinking water and medical communities can work together to help increase public knowledge of the science of water, according to the AWWA.

The association said it will introduce its officers during the opening session. The opening of the ACE08 Exposition follows the Opening General Session.
